

Technical Preparations for DPC

ST. GEORGE'S, Grenada, August 4, 2010 – The technical arrangements for Thursday's Diaspora Preparatory Conference (DPC) in St. George's have been finalised and people who are unable to attend will be able to follow the proceedings' live by webcast and audio feed.

Preparations for the live webcast and audio feed

The Government Information Service (GIS) has teamed up with LIME Grenada Ltd, GrenadaBroadcast and the St. George's University (SGU) to coordinate a live coverage of the event.

Diaspora Preparatory Conference to be held at St. George's University (SGU)

GrenadaBroadcast will stream live continuous audio while the GIS will provide a live video feed for transmission via LIME's network.

The Preparatory Conference opens at 8:30 a.m. on Thursday and will include remarks from Prime Minister Tillman Thomas and Foreign Affairs Minister Peter David and the Guest Speaker, Doliver Nelson.

Following the opening ceremony (see relevant attachment), the conference will continue with presentations from Ministers of Government to be followed by discussions (see relevant attachment).

In these photos, technical officials from the GIS are checking and laying cables for Thursday's broadcast.