The Embassy of Grenada TO OPEN ITS DOORS TO THE PUBLIC IN MAY AS PART OF PASSPORT DC

Nationally Acclaimed Passport DC Returns with Around the World Embassy Tour on May 3, 2025

WASHINGTON (Tuesday 29 April 2025)— On Saturday 03 May 2025, The Embassy of Grenada will join more than sixty embassies during Around the World Embassy Tour beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Passport DC runs from May 1 through 31 and offers an outstanding array of cultural activities presented at embassy open houses, street festivals, performing arts venues, museums and special receptions throughout the District.

"Passport DC is one of Washington, DC's most cherished traditions," said Events DC President and CEO Angie M. Gates. "This hallmark event truly embodies the essence of our city: dynamic, inclusive and globally connected. Each year, it serves as a reminder that despite our diverse backgrounds, we can unite through art, culture, cuisine and shared experiences. Throughout the month of May, we look forward to welcoming residents and visitors to explore the world through extraordinary events in our nation's capital."

This year marks the first time that The Embassy of Grenada has participated in Passport DC. This year, Grenada's "open house" Exhibit will be hosted by the University of the District of Columbia (4200 Connecticut Ave NW 20009). Guests can expect to be immersed in the vibrant spirit of Grenada's SpiceMas celebration, taste traditional holistic spices, and its lush agricultural bounty for an interactive cultural exchange like none other. Admission is free.

“The Honorable Ambassador Tarlie invites you to Come Discover Grenada,” said Embassy Liaison, Gabriel Jenifer. “Let’s Embrace Paradise Together!”

Indulge in Grenada’s unique selection of tropical fruits while exploring an array of flavors from our “Spice Market”. With exclusive raffle giveaways, our exhibit will ignite a tantalizing desire to travel to the beautiful tri-island state of Grenada, Carriacou and Petite Martinique!

Other Passport DC signature events include:

- May 2-3: International City Festival (Produced by Events DC)
- May 2-3: All Hallows Guild’s Flower Mart (Produced by All Hallows Guild at Washington National Cathedral)
- May 10: European Union Open House (Produced by the European Union Delegation)
- May 17: Fiesta Asia (Produced by Asia Heritage Foundation)

ABOUT THE EMBASSY OF GRENADA

The diplomatic mission of Grenada in Washington, D.C. in addition to its bilateral responsibilities with the United States of America, also has a major multilateral role, representing Grenada’s interests in the Americas as the Permanent Mission of Grenada to the Organization of American States (OAS).

Grenada is one of the 35 Member States of the OAS, having joined on May 15, 1975, signing and ratifying the OAS Charter. This is the forum where Government representatives from the Western Hemisphere or “the Americas” come together to strengthen their relationships and forge agreements on cooperation in a broad range of areas, principally: democracy, security, human rights, and development.

The Ambassador is the Permanent Representative of Grenada to the Organization. Grenada has held several leadership positions within the OAS over the years. The chairmanship of the Permanent Council rotates automatically every 3 months among the Member States in alphabetical order.
